[lifestyle tag269]

Each piece in this limited edition, designer-curated Signature collection is hand-selected by some of New York's most prestigious interior designers. They appoint every piece with custom upholstery, fine detailing, and exciting material and finish combinations such as high-end textiles from HBF Textiles, Kvadrat and DesignTex. Quantities are always limited and always fascinating and designed to create a statement in any home!

Our Signature Sanford Chairs and Oval Quart Dining Set is just such a furniture grouping appointed precisely by a top designer. They took Saarinen's iconic mid-century designs and put a modern spin on them to meld beautifully with today's interior spaces.

Saarinen originally produced artful seating and tables with a sculptural quality that stand as a testament to the mid-century design era. To that end, he collaborated and consulted with some of the most lauded furniture designers of the period just as we are doing today.

As design lines and shapes of Saarinen's architectural structures were echoed in his furniture designs. With his Saarinen Dining Chair, the shape of his domed glass wall of MIT's Kresge Auditorium can be found in the chair's rounded back. While his pedestal dining table remains one of the most recognizable pieces of the period. Both are still coveted today as they remain timeless must-have pieces in the modern home and office.
